February 2010

Vol. 2 Issue 1

Welcome!

Welcome to this Annual session of the Illinois State Council. We are again blessed to enjoy the wonderful ambience, and hospitality that has always characterized the saints who worship at 14 South Ashland Ave. in Chicago. Christ Temple Apostolic Faith Church, under the leadership of Bishop D. Rayford Bell and Lady Bell, is a true house of prayer.

Our theme for this year is "Advancing the Kingdom: Turning the Battle To The Gate" What more appropriate place for us to launch our marching orders. We invite you to search out the many times of prayer that are set aside in the schedule of these services, and help us to

ISC Chronicle Staff

Greetings in the matchless name of Jesus Christ! By now I hope that you have experienced the effervescence of the constantly developing ISC Chronicle, our council news publication. The Chronicle is just one very significant facet of the Illinois State Council Department of Communications. It will be used in conjunction with our council website (iscapostolic.com) to showcase all of the components of the ISC. Please ask about our advertising rates. Our mission in the Communications department is to be the conduit that facilitates pertinent information and communication for the Illinois State Council and its constituency. Council members will be able to rely on the Communications department for the most accurate and up-to-date information as it relates to ISC services and programs. We are looking for spirit filled talented people to add value to our staff. Please see me if you have skills or know someone who has proficiency in writing, photography, IT, advertising, graphic arts, proofreading, circulation or production. Our goal is to accurately represent the ISC by tapping into the best it has to offer, for the up building of God's Kingdom.

What God Said to Joshua is For Every True Believer Today?

Joshua had been an intimate and faithful assistant of Moses during the forty years of wilderness wandering (Ex. 17:8-13; 24:13; 32:17-19; Num. 13:8, 16). As one filled with the Spirit, he had been commissioned as Moses' successor (Num. 27:18-23; Deut. 34:9).

God is now calling him to lead His people into the land of promise (Gen. 12:6-7; 15:18-21). The name Joshua means "the Lord saves" (or the Lord is salvation"). The Greek form for this name is "Jesus" Jesus in the Greek form of the Hebrew word yeshua (Joshua), meaning "The Lord is salvation." This describes the future task of Mary's Son and is the initial promise of the gospel. Jesus as Savior "shall save his people from their sins." Sin is the greatest enemy of the human race, destroying one's soul and life. Through the atoning death of Jesus and the sanctifying power of the Spirit, those who turn to Jesus will be set free from the guilt and slavery of sin (Jn. 8:31-36; Acts 26:18).

Joshua is a type (or representative) of Jesus Christ in that he led God's people into the Promised Land and to victory over their enemies (Heb. 4:1, 6-8). Joshua's leadership of Israel covered about twenty-five years.

Although believers already possess salvation and in one sense are in the "heavenly places in Christ" (Eph. 1:3), we must fight the fight of faith to ensure our possession of final salvation and eternal rest (1 Tim. 1:18-20; 4:16; 6:12).

The possession of the Promised Land was realized and maintained by faith in God, expressed in obedience to His word and in warfare against God's enemies (Jos. 1:7-9). For the believer under the New Covenant the possession of salvation and God's blessings are likewise maintained by a present living faith and obedience to God's Word.

God said I will be with thee. God's foundational promise to Joshua – "I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee" – is likewise God's commitment to all believers in the struggles of their faith (Mat. 28:20; Heb. 13:5-6; Deut. 31:6). God's abiding presence with us is now a reality through Jesus Christ (Mat. 1:23) and the gift of the Holy Spirit (Lk. 24:49).

Joshua 23:8-10 "but cleave unto the Lord your God, as ye have done unto this day." [9] For the Lord hath driven out from before you great nations and strong: but as for you, no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day. [10] One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the Lord your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you."

The promises of the Old Covenant are also for us in the New Covenant. The Bible says, (Heb. 13:8) Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever. He stood with Moses, Joshua and He will be with us. Because Jesus cannot change. May God help us to TRUST HIM?

Good Stewardship

*"Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. 1
Corinthians 4:1*

These times of government bailouts, and economic stimulus packages, should serve notice for saints of God to closely examine the times in which we live. It should come as no surprise to the attentive saint, that the economic conditions we are facing are the direct result of the poor stewardship practices of our nation. Greed and avarice have wreaked havoc on the American dream and now threatens our cherished way of life.

Merriam-Webster's defines a 'Steward' as one who is actively concerned with the direction of the affairs of an organization. While this may be a rather broad definition, it does recognize stewardship as the responsibility of each and every person who is involved in the organization on any level. Whatever is entrusted to me is my stewardship, it is my responsibility to get done, and it is my area of accountability. It represents something of great value that has been entrusted to my care.

As we seek to discover the reasons for our current downward economic spiral, we are finding men who have been entrusted with investing great sums of money, who have instead helped themselves to the spoils of other peoples hard earned cash. Even as I write, there is coming to light the revelation of a 10,000 client prostitution ring in which Wall Street and other corporate America executives have financed their lascivious lifestyle of $2000.00 an hour escort services with company credit cards and expense accounts. And this I fear is the only the tip of the iceberg. Is it any wonder that we as a nation are facing the worst financial crisis since the great depression. It may very well be the precursor to what the prophet Daniels calls "...a time of trouble such as the world has never seen. (see Daniel 12:1)

Thankfully, Daniel goes on to show us that that those who are good stewards will be delivered from this trouble. But what exactly does good Stewardship look like. Certainly there are those who are responsible money managers, and this is a type of good stewardship. There are those who are faithful in raising their children. There are many areas wherein we can find examples of good stewardship, and yet this will not necessarily bring the deliverance Daniel is speaking of.

The apostle Paul holds the church, and primarily it's leadership, accountable for 'the mysteries of God'. What a responsibility. We are entrusted with investing this great salvation in mankind. As stewards of the mysteries of God, we are charged with sowing the seed of the unadulterated Word of God into the earth. Probably, if we (the Church) had been faithful to our charge, the world would not be facing the turmoil that is just ahead.

Our Lord Jesus Christ warns "That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee". This he speaks of those who have been exposed to the truth, but did not handle truth properly. It will be more tolerable for the Madoff's of this world, who after all only wasted money, than for those who have neglected the trust that comes with this great salvation. As good stewards, let us live righteous lives, "Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience."

Because of Calvary!

$$ The Fundamentals of Tipping Etiquette $$

One of life's greatest pleasures for the saints occurs after the benediction. Some might even say it's God for us all and every man for himself as the ritual of vigorously satisfying "Esau" begins. If there is food to be found, the saints will find it. However, far too often after good food and fellowship have converged, one can witness the nimble maneuvering around the paying of the bill and the leaving of an adequate tip. Oftentimes the server has had to go through the equivalent of a rigorous workout at the gym while trying to maintain a modicum of professionalism only to be left a dollar for a tip or sometimes nothing at all.

Tipping can be thought of as an extra reward for timely and attentive service. Although, leaving a tip for good service is optional, it is certainly the right thing to do especially as saints. People that work as wait staff and hospitality personnel typically are paid minimum wage, and rely on earning good tips for the majority of their income. Saints have an obligation to be ambassadors for Christ, and must remember that precious souls are watching our behavior. If we receive unsatisfactory service, we should use our discretion in the amount of the tip that we leave. We should also bring it to the attention of management in hope of getting the problem rectified so that the next customer does not have to experience the same thing.

According to the Tipping Etiquette guide at FindtheLink.net:

- Food servers who give good service should be tipped at least between 15 to 20 percent of the total bill. There is no cap for good service; customers can certainly exceed the recommended percentage.
- Buffet dining (Golden Corral, Ryan's, etc) generally requires no tipping, unless some type of service is rendered, such as bringing bread or refilling drinks. A dollar or two is usually adequate.

The following rules should be adhered to when traveling:

- If the skycap helps you with your bags at the airport it is recommended that you tip him or her $2 per bag.
- If you arrive late and the skycap helps you get to your flight on time, tip a little extra to show your appreciation.
- If you are travelling by train it is recommended that you tip the porters or red caps $1 per bag. It is recommended that you tip the sleeping car attendant $5 per day per passenger.

The following rules should be adhered to for hotel and resort stays:

- Before you arrive at a hotel or resort, inquire as to whether gratuities are included in the price of the room. Some hotels are now charging a daily fee that covers all tipping for hotel services.
- If there is no daily fee, these rates are appropriate:
 - Valet $1-3 for returning the car
 - Doorman for hailing a cab, a $1-2
 - Doorman for loading or unloading your car, a $1 a bag
 - Doorman assisting you to your room, a $1-2 per bag
 - Bellman $1-2 per bag, after he shows you the room
- When ordering room service unless the gratuity is added, add 15-20% to the total charge.
- It is customary to leave the Maid between $3-5 per day, up to $10 per day depending upon how much of a mess you make. Leave the tip on your pillow, and remember there may be a different maid each day.
- When using the services of a taxi, limo, paid shuttle or van driver the standard tip is generally at least 15% of the total fare. Increase it to 20% if the driver helps with the bags or makes extra stops. The driver of a courtesy shuttle should receive $1-2 per bag if he helps with the bags.

When in doubt about the nuances of tipping you can refer to a good travel publication or just Google it. Our Mid-Winter Conference and National Convention of the PCAF are rapidly approaching, please keep in mind the words of the great Dr. Luke who says "And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise." 6:31

Happy travels and good tipping everyone.
